

MARC DA CUNHA LOPES

Photographe professionnel depuis 2005, Marc Da Cunha Lopes est diplômé des Gobelins.

Alors qu'il se destine aux sciences naturelles, Marc cultive en parallèle de ses études de biologie son talent pour l'image : il explore les logiciels de 3D et réalise des illustrations pour la presse et l'édition. Sa passion prenant le pas, il décide de se consacrer entièrement à la création d'images en démarrant une formation en photographie.

Toujours animé par le goût de l'expérimentation, Marc est un créatif motivé par les challenges techniques et la production d'images ambitieuses.

En plus de son activité de photographe publicitaire, Marc développe depuis 2011 des séries personnelles exposées en galeries.

Marc Da Cunha Lopes has been working as a professional photographer since 2005. He is graduated from Gobelins School in Paris.

While he was studying in the natural sciences field, Marc was also training himself to image making : He explored 3D software and produced illustrations for the press and publishing. As a result, his passion for the creative field took over and he decided to start studying photography.

Always driven by his passion for experimentation, Marc's creative mind is excited by the technical challenges and ambitious projects related to image production.

In addition to his activity as an advertising photographer, Marc has been developing since 2011 personal series that can be seen in galleries.